

LABOR EXPECTS TO QUASH THE INJUNCTION

OR AT LEAST FORCE A MODIFICATION OF DAUGHERTY MEASURE

Legal Experts of Organized Labor Preparing Arguments, Believe They Have Excellent Chance to Have Permanent Injunction Refused Unless Modified

Utterances from White House and Daugherty to the Effect That the Government Did Not Intend to Apply All Restrictions of Injunction

By United Press

Washington, Sept. 6.—Organized labor expects to quash or force modification of the Daugherty injunction.

Legal experts of labor preparing to oppose Attorney General Daugherty's request that the injunction be made permanent, believe they have an excellent chance of having the permanent injunction refused unless the government modifies it.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, also believes that labor would succeed in beating the injunction. This belief is predicted in part upon utterances from the White House, and from Daugherty. Within the past few hours both these forces have made it clear that the government did not intend to apply all the restrictive clauses of the injunction.

"Strike Not Settled" Says Cuyler

New York, Sept. 6.—T. Dewitt Cuyler, chairman of the Association of Railway Executives, issued a formal statement today denying reports that the shopmen's strike had been settled. He also denied that any meetings to discuss settlement were contemplated.

Cuyler, however, does not speak for the group of executives headed by Daniel Willard of the Baltimore & Ohio railway and it is this group that is believed to be negotiating.

Opposition in Senate to Injunction

Washington, Sept. 6.—Bitter opposition to the government's injunction against the striking shopmen broke in the senate today.

Senator Robinson, Arkansas, heading the attack, declared it was an order "oppressive, unjust and unconstitutional."

"The president and the attorney general have placed between the railway executives and the strikers the power of the government and an army of United States marshals and hold in readiness the military and naval forces," Robinson said.

"No quicker way of discrediting and undermining the government can be pursued than to make court process independent of constitutional limitations and statutory restrictions and responsive to mere public convenience and opinion," Robinson warned.

Jewell May be at Baltimore

Chicago, Sept. 6.—Striking shopmen met railroad officials in Baltimore today to consider the peace proposal, according to John Scott, secretary of the Federated Shop Crafts here.

Scott declared that plans of the conference had been kept secret. He said that if the leaders at Baltimore believed the peace proposal was acceptable, a call would be issued for an immediate conference of the shop crafts' policy committee in Chicago.

Bert M. Jewell, president of the shopmen, was believed to be at the Baltimore conference.

"Watchful Waiting"

New York, Sept. 6.—Rail executives have adopted an attitude of "watchful waiting" in the shopmen's strike situation, and no immediate meeting to consider mediation is contemplated, it was learned at the office of T. Dewitt Cuyler, chairman of the executives, today.

Reports from various sources that the strike had been settled, were declared unfounded at the rail chairman's office.

Labor Paper Editor Arrested

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 6.—Determined to force the question of the government's power under the injunction to a clear-cut decision, Memphis labor is preparing to back to the limit the defense of Jacob Cohen, editor of "Labor Review," arrested on a charge of violating the injunction.

Involved in Cohen's case is the whole question of the extent to which authorities may go to apply the injunction to the press. Labor leaders pointed out in declaring that the Cohen case is of vital importance to the press and public of the entire country. Cohen was arrested following a publication of an editorial in the "Labor Review," the official organ of the Memphis Trades & Labor council. This editorial appearing in last Saturday's issue, scathingly denounced "scabs."

Cohen's defense will be that this editorial was written and published before Judge Wilkerson in Chicago granted Attorney General Daugherty the "sweeping injunction" for alleged violation of which Cohen was arrested.

Attorney General's Statement

Washington, Sept. 6.—The injunction obtained by the government in Chicago against the striking shopmen, will not be used to abridge personal liberty, Attorney General Daugherty declared to newspaper correspondents. Nor will the freedom of speech or press be interfered with, he added, but "freedom of speech and freedom of press does not mean those mediums may be used to incite riots or murders."

The attorney general also declared that the injunction had not been obtained to force men to work, nor was it a move to prevent strikes.

The statement of Mr. Daugherty, which was made to newspaper correspondents, followed earlier declarations by a White House spokesman after the cabinet meeting that President Harding felt the injunction would not in any way endanger constitutional rights of the men on strike or of other citizens. But, it was added, the Chicago injunction proceedings would be followed up with the determination of preventing interference with transportation.

Mr. Daugherty declared there would be no objection by the department of justice to meetings of union men to perform any of their functions "that do not interfere with interstate commerce or otherwise violate the law."

"If anyone undertakes to abridge personal liberty," he added, "I will be as vigorous in upholding the people's rights as I am vigorous in opposing violence."

The attorney general expressed the belief that the strike situation would "quiet down" this week, and added: "I do not want to go any further in these proceedings than is necessary. I want to be reasonable about it, but not so reasonable as to let the government and the people be trampled upon."

The injunction, he said, "is sitting very comfortably," adding that the department had received many con-

FIENDISH CRIME COMMITTED BY A CANADIAN GUIDE

BEAUTIFUL YOUNG GIRL REPULSED ADVANCES MADE BY 68 YEAR OLD MAN

LATTER THEN BOUND HER IN BED CLOTHES, POURED GASOLINE ON AND BURNED

(By United Press.) Halifax, Sept. 6.—Confession that he burned alive pretty 19-year-old Flora Gray after she had successfully repulsed his advances in her bedroom in the dead of night, was made by O. P. Roberts, 68, prominent guide and proprietor of a hunting lodge.

Roberts was carried into court, his feet having been badly burned by the flames which destroyed Miss Gray. Preliminary hearing of what is declared the most fiendish crime in Nova Scotia's history, was held behind locked doors because of the revolting details of the attack and murder.

A plea of guilty without counsel and the complete confession was offered by Roberts, according to authorities. The guide, who had recommendations from leading clergymen and sportsmen throughout the United States of his good character, declared he committed the murder on the night of August 28th. He told his story to his jailer when in the cell.

Flora Gray, he said, was the housekeeper in his lodge. Pretty, and left alone, she attracted him over powerfully, he said. He proposed marriage to her, but she scoffed at the idea.

According to the confession, the old guide went to Flora's bedroom late at night. He declared his intentions were evil. They failed.

"I did what I did then because of jealousy," Robert said. He told of wrapping the girl in her bed clothing where she was powerless to move, and pouring gasoline over her. He said he then set fire to her clothing with a match and after a minute or two fled.

COAL GROUP ACTS TO BLOCK PROFITEERING

COMMITTEE WILL USE PUBLICITY AS CHIEF WEAPON PENDING FEDERAL ACTION

Minneapolis, Sept. 6.—Recognizing lack of state and federal authority to enforce the Hoover fair coal prices, the northwest coal committee yesterday decided upon a plan of action to prevent profiteering by dealers, pending passage of federal fuel control legislation.

Publicity will be the instrument through which the committee proposes to curb mounting prices.

The committee announced that the publicity plan will be carried out in conjunction with priority orders to be granted consumers in each state by the joint coal committee. Representatives of the committee in each state will receive applications for coal, investigate them, give them a rating and forward them to the joint committee which will be maintained at the state capitol. The central committee will then pass on the order and send the most worthy ones to the head of the lakes, where a car service agent will have the order filled from the docks. The agent will also learn the source and price of the coal and return its record to the central committee. Meantime prices charged consumers will be investigated and by the allocation of cars through the interstate commerce commission, dock operators and dealers charging unfair prices will be refused further supplies, the conference decided.

EXPECT TO RESCUE ENTOMBED MINERS LATE WEDNESDAY

RED CROSS NURSES FROM SAN FRANCISCO ARE ON THE SCENE AT JACKSON

HOSPITAL HAS BEEN SET UP AT MOUTH OF ARGONAUT GOLD MINE SHAFT

At the Argonaut Gold Mine, Jackson, Cal., Sept. 6.—Everything was held in readiness today for the final stage of rescue of the 46 miners entombed, who have been ten days underground.

Red Cross nurses from San Francisco were on the scene. A hospital has been set up at the shaft's mouth. Ambulances are ready to rush survivors to Sacramento as soon as possible.

The last blows of the pick that will let rescuers to the living tomb where 46 miners are believed to have set off signals again last night, will be struck late today, it was believed.

Doctors who were preparing for the trapped miners if the latter are still alive, are already at the mine giving rise to reports that the final attack on the last wall has begun.

Mine officials still retain silence on the subject of the signals, but all of Jackson believes the word of the miners in the rescue crews that the blasting heard below were set off by the entombed men.

In Depths of Despair Again At the Argonaut Mine, Jackson, Cal., Sept. 6.—Jackson, vibrant with hope yesterday, is in the depths of despair today.

All day Tuesday Jackson built hopes on the chance that the old connecting drift between the Kennedy and Argonaut mines when reached the time when the miners in gold would be open. Tonight was the Argonaut might be reached.

But the drift broken into during the night was found to be caved in. If this same condition prevails the entire length of the 353 foot drift, it will take a week by conservative estimate to clean it out and after that the 75 foot rise to be cut thru new rock cannot be cut in less than 25 hours it is believed.

Rumors that the night shift last night discovered an open cross-cut which would have eliminated the necessity of drilling through the 60 foot hard rock and advanced the rescue work by four days, thrilled Jackson today. So far, mine officials are silent on the rumors. Feeling among the miners is running high regarding the reports. Every day's delay vastly decreases the possibility of finding the men alive.

LA FOLLETTE PILES UP A BIG LEAD

Milwaukee, Sept. 6.—The official count for ballots cast in Tuesday's state primary will be necessary to determine whether or not names of the democratic candidates will be placed on the ballot in the November election.

Returns from the democratic candidates continued slim, and chances are that the candidates will not pull the required 25,000 votes.

Senator La Follette continued to pile up overwhelmingly his vote over William A. Ganfield for the republican nomination for United States senator. Returns from 1,635 precincts out of 2,531 in the state gave La Follette 220,687 and Ganfield 95,617.

The vote for governor showed an ever increasing lead for renomination of Governor John J. Blaine over William Morgan. The vote from 1,641 precincts showed Blaine 206,545, Morgan 109,409, and McHenry 12,620.

In the congressional nomination contest H. A. Peavey, a wet, was leading Congressman Nelson in the 11th district. Snyder, labor leader, took the lead in the 9th district, over Judge Grass and Elmer S. Hall.

GOV. PREUS ISSUES PROCLAMATION TO THAT EFFECT TODAY

ORDER ISSUED TO CURTAIL ALL LIGHTING AT THE STATE CAPITOL

MAYORS OF ALL TOWNS AND CITIES ASKED TO CO-OPERATE SAVING COAL

(By United Press.) St. Paul, Sept. 6.—Minnesota today was put on a war time basis to conserve fuel.

Governor Preus issued a proclamation calling on the people to conserve in every possible way, and pointed out that Minnesota will be without a normal supply of coal this winter.

The first result of the proclamation which is being broadcasted over the state today was an order to curtail all lighting at the state capitol tonight during the reception for Vice President and Mrs. Calvin Coolidge.

It had been planned to illuminate the capitol with 10,000 electric lights tonight, but the plans were cancelled.

Governor Preus in his proclamation asked all mayors of towns and cities to co-operate in concentrating their efforts to conserve coal.

Fuel saved by curtailing unnecessary illuminating will be diverted to essential industries. Night illumination for advertising and display purposes will be curtailed. Churches were named on the essential list prepared by the governor.

The situation now is much worse than during the rationing of coal in the war, Donald Conn, who has been representing the governor in Washington, said today. "During the war emergency there were about 6,000,000 tons of coal at the head of the lakes. Now there are only 150,000 tons on hand," he said.

STATE FORESTER TO DEMAND SHOW-DOWN ON CONTROL

WILL MEET WITH FOREST FIRE COMMITTEE RECENTLY APPOINTED

RELATIONS BETWEEN COMMITTEE AND COX HAVE BEEN STRAINED

St. Paul, Sept. 6.—State Forester W. T. Cox today was ready to demand a show down on control of the forests. He will meet with the forest fire committee recently appointed by Governor Preus in Duluth tonight, and demand an understanding, it is reported.

The committee of 17, Cox believes, is usurping the powers of the forestry office to control the state forests and conduct the fight against forest fires. Ever since the appointment of the committee, relations between the state forester and Governor Preus have been strained. The trouble broke out the open today.

Governor Preus will have emissaries at Duluth, but will remain here himself for the public reception given for Vice President and Mrs. Coolidge. Adjutant General Rhinow also will remain for the reception.

The sending of national guardsmen into the forest fire zone has been another irritating factor in the controversy, it was said. Forester Cox indicated he will fight to retain control of his department.

Las Crosse, Wis., Sept. 6.—John J. Esch, La Crosse member of the interstate commerce commission, was robbed of $200 while asleep in a sleeper on train between La Crosse and Chicago. He discovered his loss upon reaching Chicago. His wallet was taken from his coat pocket.

PERU WITHDRAWS DELEGATES FROM LEAGUE NATIONS

OBJECTS TO A CHILEAN BEING ELECTED PRESIDENT OF LEAGUE

BOLIVIA ALSO RESTRICTS HER DELEGATES FOR SAME REASON

Geneva, Sept. 6.—Peru has withdrawn her delegates from the League of Nations assemblage because a Chilean, Augustin Edwards, was elected president. Bolivia has restricted her delegates to remain away for the same reason.

The Tacna-Arica dispute is believed practically at an end since the arbitration at Washington was the basis for the Chilean-Peru dispute.

Bolivia's enmity toward Chile also added to the dispute in the South American controversy.

GREEK ARMY HELD NEAR BREAKDOWN

ATHENS APPEALS TO ALLIES FOR ARMISTICE WITH TURKISH NATIONALISTS

London, Sept. 6.—General opinion in well informed quarters in London was that the disaster to the Greek army in Asia Minor was complete. There seemed little prospect that anything could now save it from a total debacle.

The Greek government has appealed to the powers to obtain an armistice with the Turkish nationalists, who have virtually driven the Greeks from the battlefield and as a result of interchanges among the chancellors at London, Paris and Rome, instructions have been sent to the Allied high commissioners of the three powers in Constantinople to discuss joint measures for bringing about a suspension of hostilities.

News of the successive reverses suffered by the Greeks at the hands of the Turkish nationalists in Asia Minor is believed here to forecast early evacuation of the entire area by the Greek army. The evacuation has already begun, according to the Daily Mail.

The safety of these thousands of Christians now seems to be the chief concern of the allies, whose warships alone, it is said, stand between them and possible annihilation. What degree of protection can be given, especially if the Turks reach Smyrna in their pursuit of the Greeks is a matter for speculation.

Allied Intervention Possible Constantinople, Sept. 6.—Allied intervention in the Graeco-Turkish war appeared certain today as the forces of Mustafa Kemal continued an unhindered advance upon Smyrna whence Greek refugees are fleeing to Thrace and the Greek island.

American warships will be sent to Smyrna for the protection of American citizens, but they will take up part in the fighting. British and Italian fleets were reported prepared to force an armistice at the urgent appeal of the Greek government.

The Greeks are completely defeated. Mustafa Kemal, Turkish nationalist commander after the fall of Brusa, ordered his forces toward Smyrna. Refugees are closing the roads in advance of the Turkish forces and are reported to have burned villages behind them in their flight.

Within 75 Miles of Smyrna London, Sept. 6.—Victorious Turkish nationalist forces have pushed to within 75 miles of Smyrna, according to dispatches from Constantinople today.

A dispatch says the Greeks have killed and wounded more than 10,000 Kemalists. Massacre of Christians in the evacuated districts continues, according to Athens reports.

GIRL 12, AND PIEBALD CALF WIN HIGHEST STATE FAIR AWARD

SMALL BUT PERFECT GUERNSEY ENTRANT FROM ALDEN CARRIES OFF SWEEPSTAKES

GUERNSEYS AND HOLSTEINS CALLED BEST EVER SEEN IN BOYS & GIRLS CONTESTS

Minneapolis, Sept. 6.—Lillian Katzung, aged 12, Alden, Minn., who is to be found in the boys and girls club section at the state fair, is contemplating a new $50 gold watch, a $100 cream separator, some cash jingling in her pocket and the prospects of a trip to Chicago this winter to view the International Livestock show.

She has all this new wealth because the judges in the hippodrome at the state fair saw fit to pin the sweepstakes grand championship on her brown and white Guernsey calf. Not content with beating out the score of competitors in the Freeborn County Calf club contest and a similar group in the Guernsey division selected from winners throughout Minnesota, she and the calf won out from the champions of the Holstein, Ayrshire, Jersey and Brown Swiss classes.

Showered Excellent Care The calf was the smallest of the sweepstakes entrants, but it was so nicely cared for, showed such excellent type, temperament and conformation that it carried away the top prizes.

"I always knew he was a winner," said Lillian.

The large hippodrome was filled at the judging. The livestock show attracts the farming element in the crowd as no other exhibition does.

The girl and her calf were cheered as they walked out of the sawdust arena.

VICE PRESIDENT AT STATE FAIR

COOLIDGE SAYS ERA OF PEACE TIME PROSPERITY IS HERE

(By United Press.)

St. Paul, Sept. 6.—"By every standard of comparison we are already in an era of great peace time prosperity," Vice President Calvin Coolidge told the Minnesota state fair crowds today.

"There are incidental and temporary difficulties, but some minor obstacles of this kind in our economic life is never free. They cannot hold back the impending advances of prosperity, however."

More than 50,000 people were within the fair ground gates, officials estimated. The count at noon had passed the 30,000 mark, and crowds were arriving in large numbers.

Tonight the reception for Vice President Coolidge and his wife at the state capitol will be held. Coolidge will be a guest later at the Lincoln club at Minneapolis.

GREEK ARMY HELD NEAR BREAKDOWN

ATHENS APPEALS TO ALLIES FOR ARMISTICE WITH TURKISH NATIONALISTS

London, Sept. 6.—General opinion in well informed quarters in London was that the disaster to the Greek army in Asia Minor was complete. There seemed little prospect that anything could now save it from a total debacle.

The Greek government has appealed to the powers to obtain an armistice with the Turkish nationalists, who have virtually driven the Greeks from the battlefield and as a result of interchanges among the chancellors at London, Paris and Rome, instructions have been sent to the Allied high commissioners of the three powers in Constantinople to discuss joint measures for bringing about a suspension of hostilities.

News of the successive reverses suffered by the Greeks at the hands of the Turkish nationalists in Asia Minor is believed here to forecast early evacuation of the entire area by the Greek army. The evacuation has already begun, according to the Daily Mail.

The safety of these thousands of Christians now seems to be the chief concern of the allies, whose warships alone, it is said, stand between them and possible annihilation. What degree of protection can be given, especially if the Turks reach Smyrna in their pursuit of the Greeks is a matter for speculation.

Allied Intervention Possible Constantinople, Sept. 6.—Allied intervention in the Graeco-Turkish war appeared certain today as the forces of Mustafa Kemal continued an unhindered advance upon Smyrna whence Greek refugees are fleeing to Thrace and the Greek island.

American warships will be sent to Smyrna for the protection of American citizens, but they will take up part in the fighting. British and Italian fleets were reported prepared to force an armistice at the urgent appeal of the Greek government.

The Greeks are completely defeated. Mustafa Kemal, Turkish nationalist commander after the fall of Brusa, ordered his forces toward Smyrna. Refugees are closing the roads in advance of the Turkish forces and are reported to have burned villages behind them in their flight.

Within 75 Miles of Smyrna London, Sept. 6.—Victorious Turkish nationalist forces have pushed to within 75 miles of Smyrna, according to dispatches from Constantinople today.

A dispatch says the Greeks have killed and wounded more than 10,000 Kemalists. Massacre of Christians in the evacuated districts continues, according to Athens reports.

GIRL 12, AND PIEBALD CALF WIN HIGHEST STATE FAIR AWARD

SMALL BUT PERFECT GUERNSEY ENTRANT FROM ALDEN CARRIES OFF SWEEPSTAKES

GUERNSEYS AND HOLSTEINS CALLED BEST EVER SEEN IN BOYS & GIRLS CONTESTS

Minneapolis, Sept. 6.—Lillian Katzung, aged 12, Alden, Minn., who is to be found in the boys and girls club section at the state fair, is contemplating a new $50 gold watch, a $100 cream separator, some cash jingling in her pocket and the prospects of a trip to Chicago this winter to view the International Livestock show.

She has all this new wealth because the judges in the hippodrome at the state fair saw fit to pin the sweepstakes grand championship on her brown and white Guernsey calf. Not content with beating out the score of competitors in the Freeborn County Calf club contest and a similar group in the Guernsey division selected from winners throughout Minnesota, she and the calf won out from the champions of the Holstein, Ayrshire, Jersey and Brown Swiss classes.

Shown Excellent Care The calf was the smallest of the sweepstakes entrants, but it was so nicely cared for, showed such excellent type, temperament and conformation that it carried away the top prizes.

"I always knew he was a winner," said Lillian.

The large hippodrome was filled at the judging. The livestock show attracts the farming element in the crowd as no other exhibition does.

The girl and her calf were cheered as they walked out of the sawdust arena.

VICE PRESIDENT AT STATE FAIR

COOLIDGE SAYS ERA OF PEACE TIME PROSPERITY IS HERE

(By United Press.)

St. Paul, Sept. 6.—"By every standard of comparison we are already in an era of great peace time prosperity," Vice President Calvin Coolidge told the Minnesota state fair crowds today.

"There are incidental and temporary difficulties, but some minor obstacles of this kind in our economic life is never free. They cannot hold back the impending advances of prosperity, however."

More than 50,000 people were within the fair ground gates, officials estimated. The count at noon had passed the 30,000 mark, and crowds were arriving in large numbers.

Tonight the reception for Vice President Coolidge and his wife at the state capitol will be held. Coolidge will be a guest later at the Lincoln club at Minneapolis.

FAMILY FEUD STARTS OVER KU KLUX KLAN

(By United Press.)

POISON WHISKEY KILLS SEVEN IN BROOKLYN

New York, Sept. 6—Five men and two women are dead today from drinking poison whiskey in Brooklyn. Some of the deadly liquor is alleged to have come from a grocery store owned by Mrs. I. Vatala, 33. She is charged with selling a bottle for $1 to Michael Kienan, who shared it with a woman friend. The latter died, and Kienan went totally blind. He told the police of his experience, and arrest of Mrs. Vatala followed. Kienan died today.

Wholesale arrests of intoxicated persons found in what is known as the Red Hook district where the deaths occurred, filled three jails.

Prisoners are being questioned as to the source of their jugs in an effort to locate all of the prisoners' whiskey.

The silver cup which is to be awarded for Farm Club exhibits, has arrived and will be on display, together with the horse shoe lapel pins, which are given in the horseshoe tournament, in the windows of C. L. Burnett, jeweler.

This cup will be contested for by various farm clubs and must be won by the same club three years in succession before it becomes the permanent property of that club.

The Great Lakes-Tidewater Association will have interesting maps on display at the county fair, vividly illustrating the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence seaway, which should be seen and studied by every fair visitor, and the project boosted by him at every opportunity. On the margin of the maps are these pertinent facts worth remembering: "This project moves the Atlantic ocean inland. Saves one thousand miles of rail haul. Opens the continent to the sea." In addition, this project will make Duluth an ocean port, bringing Brainerd and Crow Wing county within 125 miles of the sea.

The county fair books are a little late in being issued, but are now out of the press and are being mailed out, so that they will be received for use in connection with the fair.

Missionary Society

The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church will hold its first fall meeting on Thursday, September 7th, at three o'clock in the parlors of this church. All members are requested to be present. There will be election of officers for the coming year. Visitors are welcome.

CURTISS LATEST INVENTION IS FLYING BOAT GLIDER

Glen H. Curtiss, inventor of the flying boat, has just built a flying boat glider. Tests will soon be made on Great South Bay, Long Island. The glider is a replica of the famous NC-4, first airplane to fly the Atlantic. It is built of wood, duralumin and silk—the hull being of metal and the wings of fabric. It measures 28 feet from tip to tip of the wings, and 22 feet 11 inches overall. Empty it weighs but 150 pounds. Eventually Mr. Curtiss hopes to rise from the surface of the sea, but in the first trials the glider will be launched from the deck of a speed boat or by towing. Photo shows Mr. Curtiss seated in his new flying boat glider.

Lloyd Leuthold of Kasson Lost His Artillery Valise Between Brainerd and Onamia

All the world loves a tourist and incidentally goes out of his way to do him a favor.

In a letter to the "Minneapolis Journal Travel and Resort Bureau", managed by Perry S. Williams, Lloyd H. Leuthold of Kasson, Minn., says that on August 23, he lost from the running board of his automobile somewhere between Brainerd and Onamia a khaki artillery valise containing outing clothing, boots and oxforbs.

Mr. Leuthold was a tourist at the time. The contents are practically of no value except to the owner who nevertheless is willing to pay a liberal reward for the recovery of the valise.

Surprise Party

The summer home of Mr. and Mrs. I. U. White on Gull Lake was the scene of a very pleasant surprise party, Tuesday evening. The occasion was in honor of Mrs. White's birthday.

A bountiful birthday dinner was served at 7 o'clock; and the young folks were jubilant, in once being able to put a real surprise over on Mother.

Those present were C. B. White, Mr. and Mrs. I. C. White, Mr. and Mrs. Vern White and family, Mr. and Mrs. Art White and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dean White and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Holman and family.

The Hon. She is reported to have lately become reconciled with her father, who at one time disapproved of her marriage to an actor.

BRAINERD'S ODDEST STORY OF TODAY

Ralph Russell, employed at the W. E. Brockway grocery, is living at the lakes near Merrifield, driving back and forth to work each day. This morning he had a great deal of trouble getting his Hudson to function, being able to crawl along at only three or four miles per hour. On arrival at the Lively garage the mechanics dissected the carburetor and found that it was full of acorns, deposited therein during the night by a family of squirrels anxious to fill their larder for the coming winter. The acorns were fed into the carburetor through a large hole in the super-heater. Mr. Russell is exhibiting them, a whole handful, at the store today, but is having trouble in making his hearers believe the squirrel-food story.

WORLD WHEAT OUTPUT CONTROLS PRICES HERE

"World production of wheat is the dominating influence on the price of wheat in the United States," is the opinion of Mark W. Pickell, Agricultural Statistician for the Farmers National Grain Dealers Association at Chicago, who has just completed a three month's special study of the factors influencing the price of wheat.

"United States production of wheat is of secondary influence in controlling American prices, and general business conditions and grain movement are third in importance," Mr. Pickell says.

With the use of facilities of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture, Mr. Pickell has charted the production, movement, prices of wheat and general price levels, and his conclusions are the result of correlating these various factors. The investigation is one of the first to be made under a new plan of co-operation by which the Department of Agriculture places its facilities at the disposal of business groups and others who wish to make economic studies through their own representatives.

BUSINESS CONGRESS REVIEWS PROBLEMS

SUCCESS COMES TO MERCHANT WHO ADVERTISES, RETAILERS AND SALESMEN TOLD

Minneapolis, Sept. 6.—"Success today is coming to the merchant who is able to realize and capitalize his opportunities in the great field of advertising," Fred P. Mann, president of the North Dakota Retailers' association, told the Progressive Business congress, which opened its second annual convention at the Radisson hotel Tuesday.

The awakening of merchants to new and more profitable methods of business management and the development of Minneapolis as a more widely appreciated business market were the chief needs stressed at the convention. Mr. Mann, the chief speaker, urged more intensified advertising and pointed as an example of methods he recommended to his own large retail drygoods house in Devils Lake, N. D., the success of which has earned him wide recognition. He has just returned from addressing similar business conventions in St. Louis, Chicago and other parts of the country.

Asserting that the travel industry must be measured by the fact that 40,000,000 people of this country can travel anywhere they desire in their automobiles and that machines are being purchased at the rate of more than two a minute, Perry S. Williams, manager of The Journal Travel and Resort bureau and vice-president of the community advertising department of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, told the Progressive Business congress at the Radisson hotel that every community should seize the opportunity to establish itself as a station on the routes of this growing transportation system through the establishment of free information bureaus.

"Travel by automobile, otherwise the travel industry," he said, "is the great coming transportation industry in America. The men who have kept steadily at work developing our automotive industry have due them the thanks of the people of this country."

"Too much has been said in the way of calling the automobile a luxury and the automobile industry a nonessential. With people from various sections of the country meeting each other as they travel about in their own machines we have a great Americanizing influence, a great spreading of wealth through money spent or invested en route by these travelers, and a much needed addition to our transportation system."

Former Yankee Players

Cause Downfall of Hugmen

New York, Sept. 6.—The Yankees sustained a severe setback yesterday losing a double header to Boston, 4 to 3 and 6 to 5, and losing first place to the St. Louis Browns. Boston now has won 11 out of 18 games with the Yankees this season. Former Yankee players in the Red Sox lineup played a prominent part in the champion's downfall, Mitchell's home run giving Boston its winning margin in the first game and Pratt's homer, with Burns on base, decided the second game. Bush, pitching for New York in the second game, sustained his sixth defeat in 28 games. Ruth hit his 29th homer in the first game.

DIVERSIFIED FARMING WEEK

GOVERNOR J. A. O. PREUS has done well in setting aside a week in which the attention of the citizens of Minnesota will be directed to the agricultural interests of the state, while the minds of the farmers themselves are centered on a study of the advantages accruing from diversified farming and the methods to be employed to secure the best results.

The conditions of the past two or three seasons prove conclusively that something must be done to assist the farmers, who after doing the hard work which farming entails, have received less for their produce than they were required to expend in growing their crops. One of the most important parts of the program of the week of September 25 to October 1, is the presentation of information gathered by experts on the subject, which will aid the farmer in choosing which branch of farming he will take up in the light of statistics showing the condition of the market with regard to that particular produce. When the farmers of the Northwest grow too many oats or potatoes they are compelled through the over-production of these crops to take a loss, and some way must be found of directing the farmer in his seeding so that the crops may be diversified, thereby limiting the produce of any one kind and resulting in a price that will compensate the farmer for his outlay, his labor, with an over-plus to be utilized in providing more scientific equipment and renewing worn-out machinery.

The directing of the attention of the citizens of the state to a consideration of the problems faced by the agriculturist will result in a sympathetic appreciation of the conditions in which the farmers of the Northwest find themselves at this time when the large crops have so affected prices that the grower does not receive a fair value for his activities, expenditure, and investment.

Prosperity in the Northwest will not be assured until the farmer receives not only sufficient to meet his expenses, but that over-plus which will be largely expended in purchasing equipment, which will in turn bring prosperity to those who make and sell this machinery, as well as to the employees of the factories in which the equipment is made. The governor of Minnesota has acted wisely in seeking to focus the attention of the people of the state on agricultural problems and methods of meeting these as they arise.

RACE PREJUDICE

THE announcement that the Jewish organizations in Greater Boston have retained counsel in what is likely to be a real effort to bring to an end anti-Semitic demonstrations in various communities, will be gratifying to those broad-minded citizens of this country whose eyes have been able to see that there is no special American class with the possible exception of the Indians—the original inhabitants.

Race prejudice, often passing over into race hatred, is altogether too prevalent in the United States, where the composite character of the nation's citizenship ought to check such provincial and mischief-making jealousies and antagonisms. Every once in a while the country is invited to listen while California pours forth her predictions of the calamities which are descending upon the state because of the influx of the Japanese. Explosive Irish elements, composed of many who have not known at first hand the sorrows of Ireland, and who are less ready to bring peace than those who have suffered at home, give vent to their hatred of all things English. Many professedly pure-stock Americans have never forgotten the Revolutionary war, and do not know that England is becoming more democratic daily while America is becoming more autocratic. Some Germans never will forget that we went into the war against the Fatherland. And on every hand the provincially minded are harboring those ancient grudges which hinder the free association of peoples in a land which boasts of bringing widely differing nationalities into the family of one great commonwealth.

And, perhaps, the most surprising of these many hatreds is that which leads to anti-Semitic demonstrations. Many ignorant Christians think it their Christian duty to be contemptuous of the Jewish people, failing to appreciate the historic fact that their Master was born of a Jewess. The Jewish people have given leadership not only to America but to England and other countries, and such attacks upon this people as those emanating from the fertile mind of Henry Ford, issuing in outbursts of racial antagonism, are to be deplored. There are virtues and defects in every race, and Mr. Ford's propaganda and the anti-Semitic demonstrations are clear evidence of a racial defect. To attack a race of people because a few bankers of this race have displeased one would only be equalled by that race assuming that all Americans are intolerant because of the attitude of one.

TAXES

AT a meeting of the National Tax association to be held at the Curtis hotel, Minneapolis, September 18-22 the presentation of a model tax law will be one of the features. As announced by one of the members of the association an effort will be made to shift the burden of taxation from real estate which is carrying too heavy a burden of taxation.

Experts on taxation may spend sleepless nights in figuring how the taxes are to be most satisfactorily apportioned, but when they have expended their best efforts on the subject, the expenditures of the community, state and nation, must be met by taxation, and however this is apportioned, in the end the public pays. A survey of history will indicate that at all times men have been tax dodgers and that at all times experts have been elaborating new theories which, robbed of their camouflage, were skillful attempts at passing the buck.

The only way to reduce taxation is by reducing expenditures. And so long as people demand good schools, good roads, subsidies to railroads and ships, adjusted compensation for war veterans, and a hundred and one other things, which it is to be devoutly hoped they will keep on demanding, the taxes will be away up on the level of the improvements for which they pay.

We get what we want and we pay for what we get applies to taxation, only, perhaps at times, we get more than we ought and we find it hard to pay for what we get. But of all human inconsistencies the most pronounced is found in the man who is always talking about that wonderful future when everything will be made beautiful, and who at the same time grumbles loudest over the tax he pays to help the good work along.

gratulatory messages on it, including many from labor people.

The great majority of the press—about 96 per cent—that portion of the "respectable upstanding press," Mr. Daugherty declared, approved the government's course. The press, he added, had performed a "very generous, helpful service to the American people."

Responding to a question, the attorney general said he thought a court would construe advocacy of picketing as being in violation of Judge Wilkerson's temporary restraining order.

Reports to the department of justice today, he asserted, showed the situation over the country to be "quiet, very comfortable."

As the attorney general discussed the situation, William H. Johnston, president of the International Association of Machinists, one of the seven striking rail unions, declared in an address before a mass meeting of strikers here that no change had been made in the methods of conducting the strike, so far as his union was concerned.

Mr. Johnston characterized the Chicago injunction as "the big noise" and said he would defy Attorney General Daugherty or anyone else to interfere with me and my fellows meeting to discuss matters of mutual interest."

New Attendance Record

St. Paul, Sept. 6.—Indications are a new attendance record will be established at this year's Minnesota State fair, which got under way last Saturday, and will continue throughout the week.

Record throngs have stormed the gates each day of the fair, and visitors have been loud in their praise of this year's exposition. All of the exhibits are said to be the best in history.

The entertainment program is said to surpass other years in all departments.

The automobile and harness racing programs have been hotly contested. The vaudeville program is made up of twelve headline acts, while the night fireworks show, "Mystic China," is a spectacle that is drawing crowds.

Poultry Show

St. Paul, Sept. 6.—Combining an International Poultry show for the first time with the National Dairy Exposition, farming interests of the United States will strive at the Twin Cities October 7-14 to demonstrate that the cow and the hen figuratively speaking go hand in hand in the upbuilding of more prosperous agriculture.

Decision to hold the poultry show and to make it international in scope was reached by the National Dairy association after a conference with the Minnesota State Fair board. The agricultural building on the fair grounds was placed at the disposal of the Dairy Exposition for the poultry exhibit.

Plans for the International Poultry show, which will be directly under the management of the Dairy association, include the engagement of George W. Hackett, Minneapolis poultry judge, breeder, and, during the war, in charge of poultry extension work in eight Northwest states.

Fully 2,000 entries are expected at the poultry show, representing 35 states and foreign countries.

BRYN MAWR HEIRESS, 'FIRED' AS THIEF, SUES

Philadelphia, Sept. 5.—Miss Marjorie Barker, young, attractive and an heiress, is demanding $50,000 for alleged damages to her reputation.

The young woman, a former student of Bryn Mawr college, has filed suit here against the college and its former president, Dr. M. Carey Thomas, as a result of her alleged summary expulsion on charges of petty theft in April of last year. The daughter of a well-to-do citizen of Michigan City, Ind., the accuser, was "ridiculous," she asserts.

She instituted court action last

December to force the college to give her opportunity openly to defend her honor and win reinstatement in the college. But the case was dismissed on the ground that the court lacked jurisdiction after Dr. Thomas and Dr. Hilda Smith, dean had testified regarding Miss Barker's expulsion. Miss Barker was represented by Sena a George Wharton Pepper as attorney without charge because he considered a "gross injustice" was being done a young girl's reputation.

Blind Tractor Expert

A North Dakota young man, blinded by gas during his service in France, has become a tractor expert.

The United States Veterans' Bureau rehabilitated him by giving him a course at The Evergreen

School for the Blind at Baltimore, where he learned to read and write Braille, which is the system of writing in use among the blind. He also learned to use the typewriter. He was then given a course in a State Auto School, specializing in tractor designing, and later was given placement training in a big tractor factory. Being naturally of a mechanical turn of mind and an alert young man he not only became a good tractor mechanic, capable of making ordinary adjustments and repairs, but a real tractor expert.

He is now devoting a great deal of his time to what is apparently a well-conceived plan for a new type of tractor. At present he has only one or two problems to be solved before his design is completed.

DIVERSIFIED FARMING WEEK

GOVERNOR J. A. O. PREUS has done well in setting aside a week in which the attention of the citizens of Minnesota will be directed to the agricultural interests of the state, while the minds of the farmers themselves are centered on a study of the advantages accruing from diversified farming and the methods to be employed to secure the best results.

The conditions of the past two or three seasons prove conclusively that something must be done to assist the farmers, who after doing the hard work which farming entails, have received less for their produce than they were required to expend in growing their crops. F. M. KOOP RESIGNS FROM THE COUNCIL

Second Ward to be Sounded as To
Whom They Wish for a Successor to Mr. Koop

THE WHITE MEMORIAL PARK
Committee from Chamber of Commerce Waits on Council With Offer from A. A. White

The resignation of Alderman F. M. Koop of the second ward was received and accepted at the council meeting Monday evening.

Alderman H. F. Michael of that ward then inquired if the council desired to fill the vacancy without suggestion from the ward or should he (Mr. Michael) take steps to learn the sentiment as to whom the ward would prefer to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Koop, following the plan used by other wards when a vacancy occurred. The sentiment of the council was that Mr. Michael ascertain whom the ward would wish to represent it and report at the next meeting.

All members of the council were present except Alderman Lyons and Koop.

White Memorial Park
A committee from the Chamber of Commerce waited on the council with an offer from A. A. White of certain parcels of city property which Mr. White wishes to give to the city of Brainerd for park purposes. One plot is adjacent to the Mississippi river and just north of the railway right-of-way, the other joins the new court house property on the south.

The committee pointed out that no strings are attached to this offer of Mr. White, except that he wishes the first named plot named the Lyman P. White Memorial park. The council referred the matter of this gift to the property committee, they to report on it at the next meeting.

J. W. Warrick, proprietor of the Ransford billiard parlor asked that his license be transferred to J. M. Dupuis. This matter was turned over to the mayor and police committee to report at next meeting. Mr. Warrick being left responsible for the billiard parlor until that time.

Firemen's Relief Association
Funds for the Brainerd Municipal band, amounting to $298.74, and for the Firemen's Relief Association, $1,238.63 were ordered paid. The Firemen's Relief Association was organized in 1918, but agreed to draw no funds on their account until 1922, so this is their first benefit from the association.

Fire Chief H. McGinn reported to the council the need of one thousand feet of fire hose to bring the supply up to 4,500 feet, also the need of a small tire hose and gauge for pumping truck tires. He also called attention to the housing of high test gasoline in the fire hall contrary to state law. An additional fire truck and a general alarm system were recommended by Chief McGinn in his report. The council moved to purchase a new gong for the fire hall to replace the old one which is worn out.

Street Light
A street light was requested for the corner of 18th and Laurel streets, and the matter referred to the light committee.

The second estimate on paving was presented, but it was decided not to pay it until the sand and gravel had been removed from the middle of South 6th street, and that center section brought down to paving level.

New Culverts
Two culverts were requested, one on Kinsey, the other on Roosevelt streets. This was referred to the street committee with power to act.

New Chief of Police
The mayor brought up the matter of the vacancy in the office of chief of police, since the resignation of Charles Varner. He stated that he wished to advance his men in the department, making Captain Erick Graff chief, Oscar M. Reisberg, captain, and Traffic Officer Abrahamson, patrolman. These appointments were confirmed by the council, who also allowed former Chief Varner pay for two week's vacation due him at the time of his resignation.

Estimates Allowed
Eighty per cent of estimate No. 1, Riches and Son was allowed, amounting to $4,614.40.

Quince Street Grading
Two bids were opened on the grading to be done on Quince and south 10th streets. The bid of Clusan & Ledberg, of Red Lake Falls, which included certified check for $200, 5 per cent of their bid, was as follows: For the grading of Quince street, from the east line of 8th street to west line of 10th street, 2,000 yards at 29c per cubic yard, totalling $580, and for grading South 10th street from center line of Quince to Short street 5,600 yards at 29c, $1,624. Overhaul to be 1 1/2 cents per cubic yard.

The other bid was filed by I. R. Sewell, which included their certified check of $150. Their figures were: 2,000 yards of grading on the 10th street project at 34c per cubic yard, $680 and 5,600 yards on the Quince street job at 34c per cubic yard, $1,904, with an overhaul allowed of 4c per cubic yard.

The bid of Clausa & Ledberg was referred to the finance committee to report at the next meeting, and the Sewell check ordered returned.

The Commercial State bank filed their bond for ten thousand dollars with the city, to allow that institution to be used as a depository for city funds.

The city clerk and the city milk inspector each filed reports with the council which will be found in another column. W. D. McKay, secretary of the Water and Light Board filed his regular monthly report of the work of his department.

The council adjourned until next Monday, September 11th, when a special meeting will be held for the sale of certificates of indebtedness to meet the street work, and to accept bids on pending street jobs.

PREPARING FOR ROAD SHOW
A. W. Force, Former Manager of New Park Theatre Now in Brainerd

A. W. Force, former manager of the New Park theatre, arrived in Brainerd Monday evening and will be here the balance of the week in charge of preparations for "The Three Wise Fools", coming to the New Park next Saturday.

The "Three Wise Fools" is not a moving picture, but a legitimate comedy-drama, staged by a company of real artists and equal to or perhaps better than "The Bar", which was so well received in Brainerd last season.

Brainerd is indeed fortunate in being included in the itinerary of this company, which is playing only the largest cities. They come here from Duluth, and after their one night engagement in this city, play a full week in Minneapolis, a week in St. Paul, and then jump to the coast to fill dates in Seattle, Portland, San Francisco, Los Angeles and similar western cities.

Mr. Force seems very happy in being back in Brainerd again, and his friends only regret that his sojourn will be of such a brief duration.

Mrs. Elizabeth Fleener, her mother, Mrs. Treglawny and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kylo and children drove to Valley City, N. D. Sunday, and returned Monday. They report the condition of the roads generally as very good, with one bad spot near Dilworth, which however is very short.

The party stopped in Fargo enroute home on Monday and attended the Labor Day celebration in that city, which was put on in rather an extensive scale, with contests, ball games and a program of speeches.

In Fargo they met Fred Cook and family, former Brainerd residents, who wished to be remembered to their friends in this city.

It was stated that Monday was the warmest day of the entire Summer season in Fargo, the mercury hunting the top of the tube.

F. M. KOOP RESIGNS FROM THE COUNCIL

Second Ward to be Sounded as To Whom They Wish for a Successor to Mr. Koop

THE WHITE MEMORIAL PARK Committee from Chamber of Com- merce Waits on Council With Of- fer from A. A. White

The resignation of Alderman F. M. Koop of the second ward was received and accepted at the council meeting Monday evening.

Alderman H. F. Michael of that ward then inquired if the council desired to fill the vacancy without suggestion from the ward or should he (Mr. Michael) take steps to learn the sentiment as to whom the ward would prefer to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Koop, following the plan used by other wards when a vacancy occurred. The sentiment of the council was that Mr. Michael ascertain whom the ward would wish to represent it and report at the next meeting.

All members of the council were present except Alderman Lyons and Koop.

White Memorial Park

A committee from the Chamber of Commerce waited on the council with an offer from A. A. White of certain parcels of city property which Mr. White wishes to give to the city of Brainerd for park purposes. One plot is adjacent to the Mississippi river and just north of the railway right-of-way, the other joins the new court house property on the south.

The committee pointed out that no strings are attached to this offer of Mr. White, except that he wishes the first named plot named the Lyman P. White Memorial park. The council referred the matter of this gift to the property committee, they to report on it at the next meeting.

J. W. Warrick, proprietor of the Ransford billiard parlor asked that his license be transferred to J. M. Dupuis. This matter was turned over to the mayor and police committee to report at next meeting, Mr. Warrick being left responsible for the billiard parlor until that time.

Firemen's Relief Association

Funds for the Brainerd Municipal band, amounting to $298.74, and for the Firemen's Relief Association, $1,238.63 were ordered paid. The Firemen's Relief Association was organized in 1918, but agreed to draw no funds on their account until 1922, so this is their first benefit from the association.

Fire Chief H. McGinn reported to the council the need of one thousand feet of fire hose to bring the supply up to 4,500 feet, also the need of a small tire hose and guage for pumping truck tires. He also called attention to the housing of high test gasoline in the fire hall contrary to state law. An additional fire truck and a general alarm system were recommended by Chief McGinn in his report. The council moved to purchase a new gong for the fire hall to replace the old one which is worn out.

Street Light

A street light was requested for the corner of 18th and Laurel streets, and the matter referred to the light committee.

The second estimate on paving was presented, but it was decided not to pay it until the sand and gravel had been removed from the middle of South 6th street, and that center section brought down to paving level.

New Culverts

Two culverts were requested, one on Kinsey, the other on Roosevelt streets. This was referred to the street committee with power to act.

New Chief of Police

The mayor brought up the matter of the vacancy in the office of chief of police, since the resignation of Charles Varner. He stated that he wished to advance his men in the department, making Captain Erick Graff chief, Oscar M. Reisberg, captain, and Traffic Officer Abrahamson, patrolman. These appointments were confirmed by the council, who also allowed former Chief Varner pay for two week's vacation due him at the time of his resignation.

Estimates Allowed

Eighty per cent of estimate No. 1, Riches and Son was allowed, amounting to $4,614.40.

Quince Street Grading

Two bids were opened on the grading to be done on Quince and south 10th streets. The bid of Clusian & Ledberg, of Red Lake Falls, which included certified check for $200, 5 per cent of their bid, was as follows: For the grading of Quince street, from the east line of 8th street to west line of 10th street, 2,000 yards at 29c per cubic yard, totalling $580, and for grading South 10th street from center line of Quince to Short street 5,600 yards at 29c, $1,624. Overhaul to be 1 1/2 cents per cubic yard.

The other bid was filed by I. R. Sewell, which included their certified check of $150. Their figures were: 2,000 yards of grading on the 10th street project at 34c per cubic yard, $680 and 5,600 yards on the Quince street job at 34c per cubic yard, $1,904, with an overhaul allowed of 4c per cubic yard.

The bid of Clausia & Ledberg was referred to the finance committee to report at the next meeting, and the Sewell check ordered returned.

The Commercial State bank filed their bond for ten thousand dollars with the city, to allow that institution to be used as a depository for city funds.

The city clerk and the city milk inspector each filed reports with the council which will be found in another column. W. D. McKay, secretary of the Water and Light Board filed his regular monthly report of the work of his department.

The council adjourned until next Monday, September 11th, when a special meeting will be held for the sale of certificates of indebtedness to meet the street work, and to accept bids on pending street jobs.

The "Three Wise Fools" is not a moving picture, but a legitimate comedy-drama, staged by a company of real artists and equal to or perhaps better than "The Bat", which was so well received in Brainerd last season.

DOUGLAS MUST PAY THE PENALTY

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Sept. 6.—Phil Douglas has no chance to get back into organized baseball. Even though he may have reasons to say and prove that he didn't know what he was doing when he wrote his "fishing letter," he admits writing it. To let him back in the game would establish a precedent that would make it impossible to deal drastically with any similar work in the future.

Some fans believe that Douglas was punished too severely. John Heydler, president of the National League, said he had been asked by several persons if the punishment could not have been made lighter. He replied that the attitude of the league officials was that Douglas was unfortunate, but that no mercy could be considered if the game is to be kept clean.

When more than 100,000 fans will sign a petition to permit the Black Sox to return to baseball, it is not surprising that some would consider a fine or a reprimand sufficient punishment for Douglas.

The New York club is entitled to a lot of credit for taking such prompt action in confronting Douglas with the evidence and placing him at once on the ineligible list. However, there are other angles to be considered. The letter fell first into the hands of Branch Rickey, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals. The Giants could have done nothing else without the consent of St. Louis.

It would seem that the one most dangerously involved was the player who received the letter and he is entitled to the greatest credit for turning it over to the officials. If that letter had gotten into any other hands before it came to the writer, he would have had a terrible time proving himself innocent.

The best thing that could happen in the future would be to get evidence against the gamblers who have approached players in the past and who will do it again in the future.

Douglas claims that he was offered $15,000 to throw games in the New York-Pittsburgh series last August, which practically decided the National League pennant and that he was also offered money to throw games in the world series with the Giants.

Douglas could do much to get himself back in the good graces of the fans if he would name his tempters and he could do a whole lot to keep baseball free of its great menace in the future.

If a couple of big gamblers could be sent up the road for a term, their fellow workers would be very slow about approaching players.

President Heydler says he is of the opinion that gambling had no connection with the Douglas case and that the banished Giant pitcher was simply inspired by a motive of revenge against McGraw.

AMUSEMENTS

"The Faith Healer"

Healing by faith, or a demonstration of the presence of divine power in human affairs is the basic theme in George Melford's latest Paramount picture, "The Faith Healer," which will be shown at the Lyceum theatre tonight and Thursday.

The play upon which the picture is founded, was written by William Vaughn Moody, whose play "The Great Divide," scored success some years ago. The stage production of "The Faith Healer" also proved highly successful.

The story concerns a young shepherd who feels the divine call to go forth and heal the sick and suffering. When he is at the height of his work, love enters his life, and with the birth of his passion he feels his divine power waning. He is on the point of renouncing his mission when it dawns upon him that love is a gift of God, and that he can entertain a pure love for the girl and at the same time go on with his work. With this comes a return of his healing power and a renewed consecration to his work, aided by the girl who also devotes her life to his mission.

The title role is portrayed by Milton Sills, Ann Forrest is Rhoda Williams, the girl, Fontaine La Rue plays Mary Beeler, the invalid and others of importance are Frederick Vroom, Loyola O'Connor, May Giraci, John Curry and Adolphe Menjou.

ALL YEAR OPERA CITY PROJECTED

MacPHAIL SCHOOL TAKES OVER SPONSORING ORGANIZATION—SEASON OUTLINED

Minneapolis, Sept. 6.—Plans for a winter season of opera, presented by twin city artists, and a continuation of the regular summer presentations by the Minneapolis Opera company, were outlined by William MacPhail, president of the MacPhail School of Music.

The MacPhail school has taken over the American School of Opera, sponsor of the opera, and hereafter will control the opera company, Mr. MacPhail said.

"Our plans for the coming season include presentation of several operas," Mr. MacPhail said, "and summer performances either at Nicolet baseball park or at Lake Harriet. Local singers will be used for chorus and principals, with the exception of several nationally known singers who now are in communication with us."

Edwin Skedden, who has been director of the company, is to go to Hollywood, Calif., to accept a position with the Frank Nagel school of opera, and Roy T. Brown and Charles Ostergren, members of the faculty of the American School of Opera, will become members of the MacPhail faculty. The MacPhail school will take over the students, studios and equipment of the company, Mr. MacPhail said.

JUST GOT OVER A COLD?

Look out for kidney troubles and backache. Colds overtax the kidneys and often leave them weak. For weak kidneys—well, read what a Brainerd man says.

S. J. Greer, horseshoer, 822 7th St. S., says, "When I was young I had an accident that affected my kidneys. Sometimes when I caught a cold and it was settled there. When I was working, the constant bending and strain on my back irritated my kidneys. When I got down to put a shoe on a horse it was about all I could do to get up again. I sure was in pain and it became hard for me to do my work properly. My kidneys didn't act right, but when I got to using Doan's Kidney Pills I was fixed up in good shape. I have had little or no kidney trouble since and my health has been fine."

1922 FORD INCOME SET AT $75,000,000

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 6.—Henry Ford's income for the current calendar year will reach $75,000,000 based on the production of approximately 1,300,000 cars it was estimated.

The estimate was based on figures furnished by a New York financial agency, which also announced the Ford Motor company's balance sheet shows no notes payable for the first time since 1918.

Borrowing to effect the purchase of minority stockholders interests for $108,000,000, which were inventoried in 1919 at $72,000,000, were wiped out.

The Ford family is now in sole possession of the business, the gross value of which exceeds $700,000,000 and which has arisen out of little more than $17,000,000 of capital. The original investment of the Ford company, a score of years ago, was $28,000.

The three stockholders of the Ford company are now Henry Ford 93.321 shares; Edsel B. Ford, 71,911 shares; Mrs. Henry Ford, 5,413 shares, making a total of 172,645 shares.

SQUIRE EDGEATE—He Gets His Pocketbook

DOUGLAS MUST PAY THE PENALTY

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Sept. 6.—Phil Douglas has no chance to get back into organized baseball. Even though he may have reasons to say and prove that he didn't know what he was doing when he wrote his "fishing letter," he admits writing it. To let him back in the game would establish a precedent that would make it impossible to deal drastically with any similar work in the future.

Some fans believe that Douglas was punished too severely. John Heydler, president of the National League, said he had been asked by several persons if the punishment could not have been made lighter. He replied that the attitude of the league officials was that Douglas was unfortunate, but that no mercy could be considered if the game is to be kept clean.

When more than 100,000 fans will sign a petition to permit the Black Sox to return to baseball, it is not surprising that some would consider a fine or a reprimand sufficient punishment for Douglas.

The New York club is entitled to a lot of credit for taking such prompt action in confronting Douglas with the evidence and placing him at once on the ineligible list. However, there are other angles to be considered. The letter fell first into the hands of Branch Riskey, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals. The Giants could have done nothing else without the consent of St. Louis.

It would seem that the one most dangerously involved was the player who received the letter and he is entitled to the greatest credit for turning it over to the officials. If that letter had gotten into any other hands before it came to the writer, he would have had a terrible time proving himself innocent.

The best thing that could happen in the future would be to get evidence against the gamblers who have approached players in the past and who will do it again in the future.

Douglas claims that he was offered $15,000 to throw games in the New York-Pittsburgh series last August, which practically decided the National League pennant and that he was also offered money to throw games in the world series with the Giants.

Douglas could do much to get himself back in the good graces of the fans if he would name his tempters and he could do a whole lot to keep baseball free of its great menace in the future.

If a couple of big gamblers could be sent up the road for a term, their fellow workers would be very slow about approaching players.

President Heydler says he is of the opinion that gambling had no connection with the Douglas case and that the banished Giant pitcher was simply inspired by a motive of revenge against McGraw.

AMUSEMENTS

"The Faith Healer"

Healing by faith, or a demonstration of the presence of divine power in human affairs is the basic theme in George Melford's latest Paramount picture, "The Faith Healer," which will be shown at the Lyceum theatre tonight and Thursday.

The play upon which the picture is founded, was written by William Vaughn Moody, whose play "The Great Divide," scored success some years ago. The stage production of "The Faith Healer" also proved highly successful.

The story concerns a young shepherd who feels the divine call to go forth and heal the sick and suffering. When he is at the height of his work, love enters his life, and with the birth of his passion he feels his divine power waning. He is on the point of renouncing his mission when it dawns upon him that love is a gift of God, and that he can entertain a pure love for the girl and at the same time go on with his work. With this comes a return of his healing power and a renewed consecration to his work, aided by the girl who also devotes her life to his mission.

The title role is portrayed by Milton Sills, Ann Forrest is Rhoda Williams, the girl, Fontaine La Rue plays Mary Beeler, the invalid and others of importance are Frederick Vroom, Loyola O'Connor, May Gracie, John Curry and Adolphe Menjou.

Laughs in "Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford"

A continuous succession of laughs is promised all those who go to see

"Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford," a Paramount picture to be shown at the Lyceum theatre next Friday and

"AERIAL FLIVER" EQUIPPED WITH MOTORCYCLE ENGINE WEIGHS BUT 314 LBS., CAN BE PACKED IN LARGE TRUNK

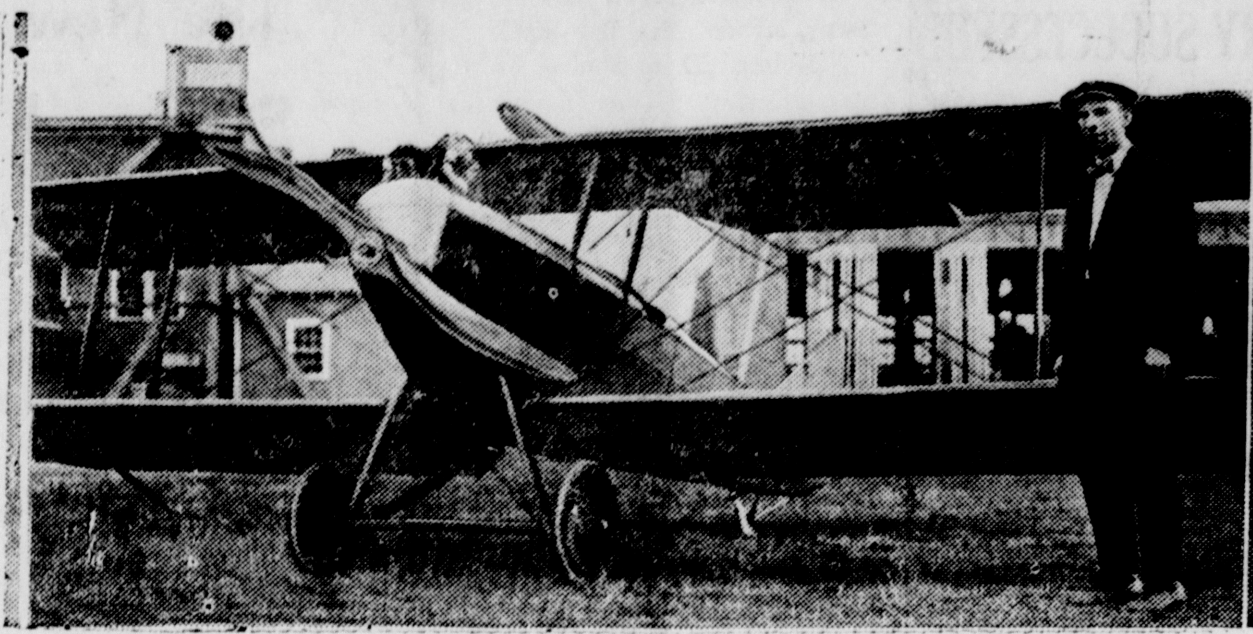

Photo shows O. H. ("Bud") Snyder, mechanic at McCook Field, Dayton, Ohio, with the "flying fliver" which he has designed and constructed. He is now planning to market these tiny planes at $1,500—the price of a good car. The plane weighs only 314 pounds and can be packed in a box 9 by 4 by 5 feet. Its wing spread is 21 feet; length, 16'6"—small enough to park in the chicken coop. Driven by a motorcycle engine it has a maximum speed of 62 miles; minimum, 35 miles an hour; maximum load, 200 pounds.

ALL YEAR OPERA CITY PROJECTED

MacPHAIL SCHOOL TAKES OVER SPONSORING ORGANIZATION—SEASON OUTLINED

Minneapolis, Sept. 6.—Plans for a winter season of opera, presented by twin city artists, and a continuation of the regular summer presentations by the Minneapolis Opera company, were outlined by William MacPhail, president of the MacPhail School of Music.

The MacPhail school has taken over the American School of Opera, sponsor of the opera, and hereafter will control the opera company, Mr. MacPhail said.

"Our plans for the coming season include presentation of several operas," Mr. MacPhail said, "and summer performances either at Nicolet baseball park or at Lake Harriet. Local singers will be used for chorus and principals, with the exception of several nationally known singers who now are in communication with us."

Edwin Skedden, who has been director of the company, is to go to Hollywood, Calif., to accept a position with the Frank Nagel school of opera, and Roy T. Brown and Charles Ostergren, members of the faculty of the American School of Opera, will become members of the MacPhail faculty. The MacPhail school will take over the students, studios and equipment of the company, Mr. MacPhail said.

JUST GOT OVER A COLD?

Look out for kidney troubles and backache. Colds overtax the kidneys and often leave them weak. For weak kidneys—well, read what a Brainerd man says.

S. J. Greer, horseshoer, 822 7th St. S., says, "When I was young I had an accident that affected my kidneys. Sometimes when I caught a cold and it was settled there. When I was working, the constant bending and strain on my back irritated my kidneys. When I got down to put a shoe on a horse it was about all I could do to get up again. I sure was in pain and it became hard for me to do my work properly. My kidneys didn't act right, but when I got to using Doan's Kidney Pills I was fixed up in good shape. I have had little or no kidney trouble since and my health has been fine."

1922 FORD INCOME SET AT $75,000,000

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 6.—Henry Ford's income for the current calendar year will reach $75,000,000 based on the production of approximately 1,300,000 cars it was estimated.

The estimate was based on figures furnished by a New York financial agency, which also announced the Ford Motor company's balance sheet shows no notes payable for the first time since 1918.

Borrowing to effect the purchase of minority stockholders interests for $108,000,000, which were inventoried in 1919 at $72,000,000, were wiped out.

The Ford family is now in sole possession of the business, the gross value of which exceeds $700,000,000 and which has arisen out of little more than $17,000,000 of capital. The original investment of the Ford company, a score of years ago, was $28,000.

The three stockholders of the Ford company are now Henry Ford 93,321 shares; Edsel B. Ford, 71,911 shares; Mrs. Henry Ford, 5,413 shares, making a total of 172,645 shares.
